

2023 WASCO COUNTY AGELESS AWARD

Older adults make invaluable contributions to our communities as volunteers, mentors, civic leaders, and more. For the second year, Mid-Columbia Senior Center, with the support of AGE+, will be recognizing several individuals who are:

- 75 years or older
- Who have made and are still making substantial contributions to their communities
- Who serve as models of both the ideal that all communities are intergenerational and that older adults are a significant part of the community fabric

To fulfill the vision of recognizing these individuals, we invite you to submit the name(s) of someone you think is deserving of this recognition. Please provide your name and contact information, the name and contact information of the nominee, and attach a paragraph about why this person should be considered for an Ageless Award.
